Weekly Update : Knaphill Junior School

Friday 5th May

A word from Mrs Harrison:

What an amazing week! Our value this week has been compassion and we have considered all those people who make up our Knaphill community. In assembly this week, we have looked at race and racism and the story of Shaka Hislop. Please do ask your child about it.

Today's Coronation Celebration Day has been one of historical enquiry. It included a great rendition of our national anthem sung by the whole school, a Right Royal Fly-by took place when children showed off their costume to the visiting 'King Charles III' and culminated in Knaphill School's very own Royal Variety Performance. We are so proud of our children's talents. Enjoy the bank holiday weekend and we will see you all next Tuesday.

A Right Royal Celebration

Ahead of the coronation of King Charles III, we have had a right, royal day. Everyone has really enjoyed themselves—and we wanted to share the day with you.

A Royal Coronation

The children were treated to an exciting Royal Coronation in assembly last week. 'The Archbishop of Canterbury' was present to crown 'King Henry VIII' to introduce the Year 4 history topic, whilst also introducing the children in the other year groups to the experience of a coronation, in preparation for the upcoming once-in-a-generation event. It was great to see the children so engaged in the immersive experience and enjoying their learning.

TTRS Results

There has been a phenomenal effort from some children in the latest TTRS tournaments with a particularly impressive effort from Year 4- you are going to do so well with your Multiplication Checker. The winners of the year group challenges of girls versus boys are the Year 3 boys; the Year 4 girls (just!); the Year 5 boys and the Year 6 girls.

The new tournaments have started today with Year 3 competing against Year 4 and Year 5 versus Year 6. Who will win the additional break-time?!

Girls' Football - Finals

Last Friday our amazing Girls' Football team went to face the other group winners in the overall finals. They were incredible. Despite some less than favourable results, they showed true determination and spirit to keep battling until the end.

We are immensely proud of them and of the parents who have supported us tirelessly through our vast improvements during this school year's fixtures. Our support was the envy of the tournament.
