

A word from Mrs Harrison...

Welcome back! I hope you had an enjoyable long half-term and made the most of the sunshine, ready for our last half term of the year. I wanted to use this perfect opportunity to share our new school values. After consulting all of our community (children, parents, all school staff and governors), we are excited to share the values with you that will be at the core of everything that we do at Knaphill school. Thank you to everyone who has helped to ensure we now have the right values for our school and our community. These values are being launched next week with the children. More details to follow over the next few weeks.
